Good morning Kids' Word children and all kids everywhere

Jesus is the Good Shepherd

Over the years many stories have been written about a big, bad wolf. Two we know very well - The Three Little Pigs and Little Red Riding Hood, but guess what, Jesus once told a story about a big, bad wolf. In that story, the good shepherd is Jesus, the sheep are us and the wolf is God's enemy. Here's what Jesus said:

"I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd gives His life for His sheep. A hired hand will run away when he sees a wolf coming, because the sheep don't belong to him and he really doesn't care about them. When the hired hand runs away, the wolf will attack and scatter the sheep."

Jesus also said, "I am the good shepherd. I know My sheep and My sheep know Me - just as the Father knows Me and I know the Father. I will lay down My life for My sheep".

Jesus is the good shepherd and we are His sheep. He knows us and He loves us. He will protect us when God's enemy or anyone tries to hurt us. When we trust Jesus we can say we are not afraid of the big, bad wolf.

Just as Jesus is our good shepherd, let us remember this week the sacrifices made by so many men and women during times of war and unrest as we commemorate Anzac Day in our schools and around our country. Many made the greatest sacrifice of all by giving their life for their friends.
